

RWGA 18 Hole League Minutes - April 5, 2016 Meeting

Vice-President Nancy Rognich called the meeting of the RWGA 18 Hole League to order at 1:00 pm at the Hills' Clubhouse.

Announcements:

Thanks were extended to the Hills' wait staff for serving lunch today and to Annette Moran for arranging the excellent lunch.

1. Officers' Reports:

a. Secretary's Report – Jan Morse indicated the March 1, 2016 minutes of the RWGA 18 Hole League had been posted and circulated. There were no corrections to the minutes. They stand approved as circulated.

b. Treasurer's Report – Brenda Fisher indicated the budget was in good shape. There are no issues related to budget at this time.

2. Special Report – Kids' Need representative Homer Hoe indicated there would be a Kids' Needs Charity Golf Tournament on Saturday, April 16 at Oyster Creek Golf and Country Club. Entry fee is $45 per golfer and includes coffee, donuts, and a light lunch. Prizes will be awarded to low scoring teams and all proceeds go to supporting Kids' Needs mission. Kids' Needs supports 30 families and over 50 children. This is all volunteer organization; see www.kidsneedsinglewood.com for additional information.

3. Old Business:

a. Memorial Garden – Nancy Rognich indicated the committee is waiting for the landscaping bid. Once the plans for the greenery are determined, a dedication date will be set.

b. Winter Interclub – Brenda Fisher thanked Marilyn Manahan and Helen Vroman for organizing the event. Last week was the last event for the year; there were no Rotonda winners.

c. Intercity League update – Shirley Harris encouraged participation. First event is May 9th at Myakka. Play is as a team of 10 people; 8 scores are used to compete with other clubs. The next event is May 24th at RGCC. Contact Shirley if you are interested.

d. Cancer Tournament – Vice President Rognich asked individuals to sign up for breakfast items to be delivered to Long Marsh the evening before or the morning of the tournament. Tournament date is April 12th.

4. New Business –

a. Thanks were extended to Susan Horste who is serving as Co Tournament Chair working with Marilyn Manahan. Susan announced the winners of today's scramble:
