DECEMBER 5 2017

President Linda Scheeler called the party-meeting to order with Bev Martin leading the group in singing Christmas Carols, and Mona Lee Burr playing her keyboard. Bill Stein offered everyone a free drink.

She also announced that Brenda Fisher and Jan Morse would be leaving the board and everyone thanked both for their service.

Teams could donate $5.00 to Rick Anderson for a tee shot which raised $60.00 for Helping Hands. David from Rotunda Course donated $200.00.

President Linda Scheeler presented Ron with a card and gift and thanked him for his huge part of assisting the RWGA League.

Peg Tompkins chairperson for the Member- Member Tournament thanked Joan Forester for creating the photo book, the tournament started with 22 teams ended with 20 teams the places are:

5th Place: Allison Withey and Annette Moran

4th Place: Mo Simpson and Charlene Diggins

3rd Place: Nancy Roknich and Kathy Molinari

2nd Place: Pam Wham and Judy Jacobson

1st Place: Annalina Bahr and Pam Debrosse

President Scheeler thanked the Christmas party committee:

Judy Jacobson chairperson-Nancy Hammond, Kathy Molinari and Collina Mays she was in charge of the breakfast feast, her specialty was Christmas "jello shots" the hit of the party. And once again the decorating committee did outstanding job, Allison Withey chairperson and she had many helpers.

Linda announced she has created a "President's Annual Award" this year's winner is Mona Lee Burr she was presented with flowers. Also recognized were a group of people working behind the scenes, they stood for their applause.

Sally McDade directed the portion of the Christmas party picking the winners of the baskets donated by members and 50/50 raised $215.00 for Helping Hands. Sally will email a total when she counts all the checks.

Everyone left with a hand made ornament and an etched wine glass created by the Christmas committee and some lucky people took home a poinsettia plant. FUN WAS HAD BY ALL.

Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Mary Young